forms - Altogether six in number under the new Lunacy Regulation - Are ordinarily intended to fully meet the requirements of the Regulation. Under Section 24 of the General Clauses Regulation the rules (additional) issued under the repealed enactments of 1874, (so far as they are not inconsistent with the Reg) have to be considered to be in force, unless they are superseded by any rule (that may be issued) or under the provisions of the new Regulation. Hence the direction contained in those additional rules to the Magistrate to send to the Officer authorised to detain the alleged lunatic a statement in the form C giving therein such particulars as he may have elicited in the course of enquiry, will still apply.. 21/7/16

Sir,

Copy partly below

With reference to the Mysore Lunacy Regulation, No.I of 1916, I have the honor to bring the following point to the notice of Government for their early orders

Flag G.

Schedule II of the Regulation repeals the Rules the reception and detention of lunatics issued with the Chief Commissioner's Notification No.141 dated 31st July 1874.

Flag K.

Nothing is said in the Regulation about the "Additional rules for the guidance of Magistrates," issued by Government with their order No.J.2130-39, Pris.8-05-28 dated 16th January 1908. This order required that a Magistrate sending a supposed lunatic to a medical officer for observation should send also a statement of particulars of the lunatic in the Form C annexed. The new Regulation contains no provision requiring Magistrates to send such particulars regarding alleged lunatics.

I request you to be so good as to inform me at an early date whether the "additional rules" prescribed by Government in 1908 and the forms prescribed thereunder are in any way affected by the new Lunacy Regulation.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant
